

It would be a disasterous move to eliminate the FCC rule that limits media consolidation. To do so would concentrate control of our airwaves into the hands of a few large corporations. I do not support this concept....it threatens to destroy a thriving diversity within America, which is the heart of our democracy. Please do not allow this to happen. The airwaves belong to the public, not large corporations. Please do not relax the ownership rules.